information. ”

WE DO THE RESEARCH, INTERVIEW PARTICIPANTS, AND TELL YOUR STORY IN AN ILLUSTRATED HISTORY, WEBSITE, OR ORAL HISTORY

➤ History Associates works with clients worldwide to produce books, oral histories, and a variety of multimedia products.

We bring the pieces of your story together into an authoritative and engaging account. Adept researchers and creative writers produce coffee-table books, monographs, booklets, and everything in between on any historical subject, anywhere. Tech-savvy historians and empathetic interviewers produce historical web sites and audio or video oral history projects to serve as a living resource for employees, the public, and the press.

Your special project is our stock in trade. Strong academic credentials, years of experience in the business of history, and established relationships with designers and printers enables History Associates to offer you a detailed proposal, a realistic budget, and the assurance that whether its for an anniversary or a special event, your history project will be done right and done on time.
