THE LUMMI NATION PRESENTS

WHAT ABOUT THOSE PROMISES?

This historical stageplay takes you back to the time of the signing of the Point Elliott Treaty of 1855, where members of the Lummi Indian Tribe traveled (by canoe) to Mukilteo to meet with Washington Territory Governor, Isaac Stevens.

'What about those Promises?' recognizes tribal efforts to continue a relationship with the United States government from treaty signing to present day. However issues of sovereignty, jurisdiction and land claims have been overlooked for generations. This story has been passed down from our elders so that we may never forget the broken promises...
