ARTICLE FOUR  The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are exclusively charitable and educational within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law) (the “Code”), including specifically to promote and support the charitable and educational initiatives of The Society of American Archivists, a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the District of Columbia and recognized as described in Code Section 501(c)(6) (referred to herein as the “Society” or the “Corporate Member”). To the extent consistent with its status as an organization described in Code Section 501(c)(3), the Corporation shall operate to support and benefit the Corporate Member and the achievement of any charitable and educational purposes thereof, with the intention that the Corporation shall be classified as other than a private foundation pursuant to Code Section 509(a)(3).

ARTICLE FIVE  In the course of carrying out its purposes, the Corporation shall be subject to the following restrictions:

(i) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein.

(ii) No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

(iii) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

The Corporation shall be a membership entity having a sole corporate member, which shall be The Society of American Archivists, a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of the District of Columbia and recognized as an organization described in Code Section 501(c)(6).

In the event of the dissolution of the Corporation, the Corporate Member, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, shall cause the remaining assets of the Corporation to be distributed to one or more organizations organized and operated for charitable and/or educational purposes consistent with those of the Corporation, provided that any and all such organizations must be described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

These Articles of Incorporation are filed pursuant to Section 102.35 of the Illinois General Not For Profit Corporation Act of 1986 (805 ILCS 105/) (the "Act"), for the purpose of incorporating an unincorporated association already residing in the State of Illinois and having purposes for which a corporation may lawfully be formed pursuant to the Act (the "Predecessor"). Consistent with that provision, the filing of these Articles of Incorporation has been duly authorized by the voting members of the governing body of the Predecessor, with the intent that, effective upon the filing hereof: (i) all of the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, franchises, authority and property of the Predecessor shall pass to and vest in the Corporation; and (ii) all obligations of the Predecessor shall become the obligations of the Corporation.
