BACKGROUND

The Society of American Archivists Foundation’s bylaws state the following with regard to election of officers:

ARTICLE I  OFFICERS

Section 6.1. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected by the Board of Directors from among their number, and shall consist of a President, Vice President, and Treasurer, along with such other officers as may be determined by the Board from time to time.

Section 6.2. Election and Term of Office. The officers of the Corporation shall be elected by the Board of Directors at the Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors (in January). Officers shall take office as of the close of such Annual Meeting, and shall serve a term of one (1) year, expiring as of the close of the Annual Meeting in the following year. Election of an officer shall not of itself create contract rights. Officers may serve an unlimited number of successive terms in office.

Section 6.3. Resignation or Removal of Officers. An officer may resign at any time by written notice to the President of the Corporation or to the Corporate Member. Any officer elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed.

Section 6.4. Vacancies; New Offices. A vacancy occurring in any office may be filled and new offices may be created and filled, at any time, by the Board of Directors.

Section 6.5. President. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors; shall sign certificates, deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed, or shall delegate such authority to his or her designee; shall vote on behalf of the Corporation, by proxy or otherwise, all securities which the Corporation is entitled to vote; and, in general, shall perform all duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

Section 6.6. Vice President. The Vice President shall assist the President in the discharge of his or her duties as the President may direct, and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him or her by the President or the Board of Directors. In the absence of the President, the Vice President shall perform the duties and exercise the authority of the President.
Section 6.7. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall oversee the prudent investment and management of the Corporation’s properties, funds and assets, and shall ensure the making of periodic reports to the Board of Directors regarding the same. The Treasurer shall have such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

In adopting a revision to the Development Committee description on June 25, 2013, the Foundation Board determined that the Foundation Vice President (Vice Chair) would serve as chair of the Development Committee.

In adopting a description for the newly formed Finance Committee on March 19, 2013, the Foundation Board determined that the Foundation Treasurer would serve as chair of the Finance Committee.

DISCUSSION
