

Utilizing Focus Group Research Data to Create Preservation Curricula for Veterans

Edward Benoit, III & Allan Martell
Louisiana State University

Virtual Footlocker Project

Active Duty & Veterans

Curriculum

Cultural Heritage Workers

Curriculum

Curricula Timeline

Curricula Creation

Create content for each module with combination of text and audiovisual elements.
Include knowledge check in points & activities.

Website Building (pending)

Upload curricula to website and run user tests with small groups.

Launch Curricula (pending)

Launch curricula on website and begin offering initial in-person and zoom-based workshops.

Complete

Active Duty & Veteran Curriculum

Upon completion participants will be able to:

1. Plan for the storage & preservation needs of their personal military records.
2. Prioritize & select items for long-term preservation.
3. Apply basic strategies & practices for organization, storage & preservation of personal military records.
4. Locate additional related resources & potential cultural heritage institutions

Cultural Heritage Worker Curriculum

Upon completion participants will be able to:

1. Discuss the key issues and challenges about keeping personal military records
2. Implement best practices for working with active-duty military and veterans
3. Deliver the VFP curriculum for active-duty military and veterans
4. Design and implement participatory recordkeeping projects with active-duty military and veterans.

Active Duty & Veteran Curriculum

Module 1: Introduction to the preservation of personal military records (PMR).

Module 2: Organization & storage of PMR

Module 3: Preservation of analog & digital PMR

Module 4: Additional resources & donation of PMR

Cultural Heritage Worker Curriculum

Module 1: Introduction to personal military records

Module 2: Working with military and veterans

Module 3: VFP curriculum for active duty & veterans

Module 4: Creating & implementing outreach projects