May 2023 – Budget Update

- Default on America Impact
- AFSCME Urges Congress to Increase the Debt Limit to Avoid Default

Last week, House Republicans passed a disastrous budget plan [H.R. 2811] that, if enacted, would cause permanent, lasting damage to a wide array of critical public service programs – everything from health care to child care to housing to nutrition assistance to veterans’ health care. Action now moves to the Senate where we expect the House-passed Default on America Act to be DOA. The Senate must work to ensure these drastic cuts in this catastrophic proposal never become law.

Default on America Impact

Unfortunately, the House GOP leadership is engaged in brinkmanship with their budget plan that could ultimately force a devastating default that could disrupt Social Security and Medicare payments, and cause higher interest rates on items like credit cards, car loans and mortgage rates. Here are some basic facts about the impact of the proposal on programs AFSCME members and our communities depend on:

- Threatens 22% cuts to education, veterans’ health care, child care and opioids treatment.
- Cuts Medicaid for two million people.
- Evicts hundreds of thousands of families, older adults, veterans and people with disabilities from Section 8 housing

AFSCME members are on the front lines, keeping our communities running. Public service workers are hardworking and providing emergency services, health care, child care, transportation, sanitation and public safety. Many workers come in contact with those infected by the virus, endangering themselves and their families. It is important for workers to have accurate information on how to best do their jobs and how to protect themselves.

NATIONAL CORRECTIONS OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES WEEK

Senator Charles Robb (D-VA) has introduced Senate Resolution 248 to designate the week of May 7, 2000 as "National Corrections Officers and Employees Week." Please e-mail or call your Senators and ask them to co-sponsor this resolution to recognize the vital role played by correctional personnel in protecting the rights of the public to be safeguarded and the demanding circumstances and dangers faced by correctional officers in their daily work lives.

WALKING TALL IN MONTANA

Sixty-five employees of the private, non-profit Eastern Montana Industries voted for AFSCME Council 9 representation on February 8. The main issue for the group home workers in Miles City, Montana, has been unpredictable treatment, especially in scheduling.

MORE THAN PENNIES IN HENNEPIN

Job security, wages and benefits and a voice of the job led the 49 employees of the Salvation Army Harbor Lights to vote for AFSCME Council 14 (Minnesota) on February 1. The Salvation Army, a non-profit health care provider under contract to Hennepin County, Minn., was aggressive in its campaign against the union. One week after the card filing, the group fired the director of detoxification and then threatened to close a unit. While tight with money for workers, the Salvation Army had plenty available for attorneys who waged their failed anti-union battle.

AND ON THE WEST COAST...

The 15 employees of the Washington State Department of Fish and Wildlife Construction and Maintenance voted to team up with AFSCME Council 28 on January 28. On February 9, the 14 employees of the Carmichael Water District in Sacramento County, Calif. voted to join AFSCME Local 148.

STAY TUNED FOR THE NEXT BIG WIN

AFSCME District Council 36 reports that 70 percent of the 1,600 employees at the Los Angeles City Recreation and Parks department signed cards for union representation. The employees are recreation assistants who work with the city's children, families and seniors and receive no benefits for their efforts. The organizing effort is the largest of its kind in nearly 20 years in the City of Los Angeles.
