

ABOUT HISTORY ASSOCIATES

History Associates Incorporated is one of the oldest and largest historical services firms in America. We're skilled archivists, dedicated museum professionals, talented storytellers, and rigorous researchers. We know our craft, we're committed to our business, and we love what we do, so you can be assured that we invest personally in your project's success.

Since 1981, we've built our reputation on delivering the highest-quality historical services according to our clients' timelines and budgets. We know that as long as organizational leaders understand the value of history, there will be a market for its use. We're dedicated to providing that work every day.

Our staff includes more than fifty professional archivists, museum professionals, historians, and support staff, which can be augmented by our relationships with specialized historical consultants. Together they bring years of practical experience and academic training to their craft.

ARCHIVAL SERVICES

Our experienced archivists all hold master's degrees in history or library science and many are Certified Archivists. Our digital archives services are led by a leading expert on the long-term preservation and access of electronic information. They all bring a great variety of knowledge and skills to every project—earned through their broad experience working with government and private sector clients. We also have the capacity to store records in our secure, climate-controlled on-site facility, freeing your space for more cost-effective use. Our capabilities include:

- Needs assessments
- Facility and program planning
- Development of plans, policies & procedures, and specifications
- Records, facilities, and database surveys
- Records and collections inventories
- Data collection and management
- Digital preservation
- Archives training
- Arrangement, description, and preservation of archival materials in any format.
