

IMPACT OF NHPRC IN ALASKA

The National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC) promotes the preservation and use of America's documentary heritage essential to understanding our democracy, history, and culture. Since 1964, the NHPRC has awarded $207 million to 4,900 projects in all 50 states and special jurisdictions.

Total NHPRC Support for Projects in Alaska:

- $1,368,386 - Total
- $660,171 - Direct Federal Grants
- $708,215 - State and Local Contributions

Projects of Special Value to the State of Alaska:

The NHPRC has played a unique role in supporting historical RECORDS projects of special value to Alaska including...

- Establish Network of Archives in Alaska – support to establish or enhance archives at such institutions as the University of Alaska and the city of Anchorage, and to support training and education in archives throughout statewide workshops on archival preservation.
- State Archives Support – funding to help modernize the state archives, improve access to its holdings, and prepare for emergencies.
- Preserve Records of National Importance – funding to preserve records related to the Exxon Valdez oil spill.
- Native American Records Preservation – support to help organize, preserve, manage, and make accessible the records of such Alaskan-based Native peoples as the Sitka tribe and native village of Afognak as well as records of the Association of Village Council Presidents and the Alaska Native Foundation.
- Heritage support for Alaska communities – support for preserving historic records held at smaller Alaska repositories.

Alaska institutions that have received assistance from the NHPRC:

- Alaska Department of Education and Early Development
- Alaska Division of Libraries, Archives and Museums, Alaska State
- Sitka Tribe
- Alaska Native Foundation
- Alaska State Archives
- Alaska State Historical Records Advisory Board
- Village of Afognak
- Association of Village Council Presidents
- Doyon Foundation
- Municipality of Anchorage
- University of Alaska