Preconference Hotel Dormitories

The Hilton Baton Rouge Capitol Center, a four-diamond Historic Hotel of America located in the city's revitalized downtown, will serve as the official RBMS hotel. Located at 201 Lafayette Street, the Hilton Baton Rouge Capitol Center opened in 2006 after extensive renovations to the property, which formerly housed the Capitol House hotel and the historic Hotel Heidelberg, where Louisiana's colorful governor Huey P. Long once held court. Blending history and elegance, the hotel offers a smoke-free environment, free wireless in guest rooms, pool and garden deck overlooking the Mississippi River, fitness center, and valet parking. It is located in the arts and entertainment district of downtown Baton Rouge.

The discounted group rate for the RBMS Preconference is $139 (single or double room). You can make hotel reservations online or you can call the Hilton Baton Rouge at 225-344-5866, and mention the group code CRL to receive the discounted group rate. The discounted group rate is available on a first-come, first-served basis until Wednesday, May 25, 2011. Please call early to for best availability. A major credit card will be required to confirm your reservation.

All official preconference events will be held at the Hilton Baton Rouge hotel with the exception of Thursday programming. On Thursday, shuttle buses will transport attendees to and from the program sessions that will be held at Louisiana State University, a short bus ride away.

For those wishing to do some sightseeing before or after the preconference, the special conference rate is available for two (2) days prior and two (2) days following the official meeting dates, June 21- 24, 2011. See "General Tourist Information" on the Travel tab for information about local attractions.
