

IMPACT OF NHPRC IN COLORADO

The National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC) promotes the preservation and use of America's documentary heritage essential to understanding our democracy, history, and culture. Since 1964, the NHPRC has awarded $207 million to 4,900 projects in all 50 states and special jurisdictions.

Total Cost of Projects supported by NHPRC in Colorado:

- $2,122,476 - Total Project Funds
- $1,061,476 - Direct Federal Grants
- $1,061,000 - State and Local Contributions

Projects of Special Value to the State of Colorado:

The NHPRC has played a unique role in supporting historical RECORDS projects of special value to Colorado including:

- Documenting the History of Colorado – support to enhance archives programs at the University of Denver, American West archives at the Denver Public Library, Naropa University, the Colorado Alliance of Research Libraries, the Colorado Fuel and Iron Archives Project at the Bessemer Historical Society, Colorado Historical Society, Boulder Public Library, University of Colorado, and the Colorado School of Mines.
- State Archives Support – funding has helped the Colorado state historical records advisory board to identify critical records issues needing additional attention and historically significant or endangered records in local repositories across the state.
