

Resources:

This resource list brings together materials compiled in preparation for the Diversity Committee's Digital Resilience session held on April 28, 2026, and from that day's conversations with the CyberPeace Institute and the Texas American Association of University Professors (AAUP).

Cybersecurity and Privacy

- CyberPeace Institute
- Cyber Collective
- Library Freedom Project
- Doxing: How to Protect Yourself and Patrons
- AAUP Digital Security Resources
- Impaque

Recommended tools and systems

- Proton: Privacy by default end-to-end encrypted email service
- Signal an end-to-end encrypted messaging app
- Bitwarden an encrypted password manager
- Proton Pass another end-to-end encrypted password manager

Organizations

Groups focused on protecting individual or collective rights against institutional, governmental, or systemic harm

- AAUP-Texas
- ACLU
- FIRE
- NAACP
- Abolition in Special Collections
- For the People: A Leftist Library Project \(Substack\)
- Mazorca Facilitation
A bilingual facilitation collective that supports social justice organizations and educational institutions

- Open Briefing
 - Open Briefing Defenders Protocol
<https://protocol.openbriefing.org/>
A guide to basic wellbeing, physical security, and digital security practices.
 - Psychological First Aid Guidance
<https://openbriefing.gitbook.io/psychological-first-aid>
Guidance on recognizing signs of distress and responding appropriately.
 - Responsive Assistance Programme
Eligibility criteria: <https://www.openbriefing.org/support/referral/>
 - Protection Ecosystem Map
<https://ecosystem.openbriefing.org/>
Allows filtering support resources by need and location.