

IMPACT OF NHPRC IN INDIANA

The National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC) promotes the preservation and use of America's documentary heritage essential to understanding our democracy, history, and culture. Since 1964, the NHPRC has awarded $207 million to 4,900 projects in all 50 states and special jurisdictions.

Total Cost of Projects supported by NHPRC in Indiana:

- $3,301,437 - Total
- $1,663,312 - Direct Federal Grants
- $1,638,125 - State and Local Contributions

Projects of Special Value to the Indiana:

The NHPRC has played a unique role in supporting historical RECORDS and PUBLICATIONS projects of special value to Indiana including...

- Establish Network of Archives in Indiana – support to establish or enhance archives at such institutions as Indiana University, Indiana State University, the Indiana Historical Society, and the New Harmony Workingmen's Institute in Bloomington.
- State Archives – funding to help modernize the Indiana Commission on Public Records, improve access to its holdings, and develop a re grants program for the state.
- Electronic Records research – support for methodologies to develop electronic records management and models for educating records managers at Indiana University.
- Documentary editions – landmark historical records for the Papers of Frederick Douglass, the Letters of Eugene Debs, and a Documentary History of the Sisters of the Holy Cross.

Indiana institutions that have received assistance from the NHPRC:

- History of Science Society
- Indiana Commission on Public Records
- Indiana Historical Society
- Indiana State University
- Indiana University
- New Harmony Workingmen's Institute
- Purdue University
- St. Mary's College

<http://www.archives.gov/nhprc/projects/states-territories/in.html>