Developing Successful Partnerships:

[PARTNERSHIPS] BETWEEN TRIBAL COMMUNITIES AND NON-TRIBAL CULTURAL HERITAGE INSTITUTIONS

WHAT ABOUT THOSE PROMISES?

This historical stage play takes you back to the time of the signing of the Point Elliott Treaty of 1855, when members of the Lummi Indian Tribe traveled (by canoe) to Makah to meet with Washington Territory Governor, Isaac Stevens. “What about those Promises” recognizes tribal efforts to continue a relationship with the United States government from treaty signing to present day. However, issues of sovereignty, jurisdiction and land claims have been overlooked for generations. This story has been passed down from our elders so that we may never forget the broken promises.
