

IMPACT OF NHPRC IN MICHIGAN

The National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC) promotes the preservation and use of America's documentary heritage essential to understanding our democracy, history, and culture. Since 1964, the NHPRC has awarded $207 million to 4,900 projects in all 50 states and special jurisdictions.

Total Cost of Projects Supported by NHPRC in Michigan:

- $6,575,362 - Total
- $2,932,118 - Direct Federal Grants
- $3,643,244 - State and Local Contributions

Projects of Special Value to the State of Michigan:

The NHPRC has played a unique role in supporting historical RECORDS projects of special value to Michigan including...

- Establish Network of Archives in Michigan – support to establish or enhance archives at several of Michigan's major institutions such as the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village, the Edison Institute, and the Detroit Institute of Arts.
- Electronic Records research – support for research and pilot programs to develop a plan for an electronic records program at Michigan State University and a national program for government archives.
- Heritage support for Local Michigan communities – support for preserving historic records held at dozens of smaller Michigan repositories.
- African American Oral History – support for a pilot archival survey of African-American oral history sources to develop a plan for a national survey of these materials.
- State Archives – funding and advice to help modernize the state archive program, update its holdings, and to prepare for emergencies.
- Local records in Michigan – support to help organize, preserve, manage, and make accessible local records throughout the state, including the Copper County region through Michigan Technological University.
