

IMPACT OF NHPRC IN MISSOURI

The National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC), the grant making arm of the National Archives, promotes the preservation and use of America's documentary heritage essential to understanding our democracy, history, and culture. Since 1964, the NHPRC has awarded $207 million to 4,900 projects in all 50 states and special jurisdictions.

Total Investment in Missouri Projects supported by NHPRC:

- $3,787,785 - Total Project Funds
- $1,695,882 - Direct Federal Grants
- $2,091,903 - State and Local Contributions

Projects of Special Value to the State of Missouri:

The NHPRC has played a unique role in supporting historical RECORDS projects of special value to Missouri including:

- Establish Network of Archives in Missouri – support to establish archives at Missouri's major landmarks, such as the St. Louis Art Museum, Missouri Botanical Garden, and the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art.
- Public Records preservation – funding to preserve and make available essential public records from local governments in Missouri including birth certificates, death certificates, divorce records, etc.
- African American Heritage and Communities - funding to preserve archives and historic records of African Americans heritage and educational history, including Eyes on the Prize film preservation project that has helped to preserve this preeminent documentary on the American Civil Rights Movement.
- Heritage support for Local Missouri communities – support for preserving historic records held at dozens of smaller Missouri repositories.
- State Archives Support – funding to help modernize the state archive program, update and digitize its holdings, and to prepare for emergencies.
- Local records in Missouri – support to help organize, preserve, manage, and make accessible local records throughout the state.
