

IMPACT OF NHPRC IN NEBRASKA

The National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC) promotes the preservation and use of America's documentary heritage essential to understanding our democracy, history, and culture. Since 1964, the NHPRC has awarded $207 million to 4,800 projects in all 50 states and special jurisdictions.

Total Cost of Projects supported by NHPRC in Nebraska:

- $1,114,648 - Total
- $567,515 - Direct Federal Grants
- $547,133 - State and Local Contributions

Projects of Special Value to the Nebraska:

The NHPRC has played a unique role in supporting historical RECORDS and PUBLICATIONS projects of special value to Nebraska including...

- Establish Network of Archives in Nebraska – support to establish or enhance archives at such institutions as the Nebraska State Historical Society, the Adams County Historical Society, Office of the Capitol Commission, and the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.
- State Archives – funding to help modernize the Nebraska State Historical Society, improve access to its holdings, and develop a local records program in Nebraska.
- Documentary editions – support for the Papers of Walt Whitman, the Journals of Lewis and Clark, and the Papers of Charles Bessey at the University of Nebraska, and publication of the Moravian Spring Mission Among the Cherokee through the University of Nebraska Press.

Nebraska institutions that have received assistance from the NHPRC:

- | | |
|--|--------------------------------|
| • Adams County Historical Society | • Office of Capitol Commission |
| • Nebraska Historical Records Advisory Board | • University of Nebraska |
| • Nebraska State Buildings Division | • University of Nebraska Press |
| • Nebraska State Historical Society | • Western Heritage Museum |

<http://www.archives.gov/nhprc/projects/states-territories/ne.html>