

IMPACT OF NHPRC IN NEVADA

The National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC) promotes the preservation and use of America's documentary heritage essential to understanding our democracy, history, and culture. Since 1964, the NHPRC has awarded $207 million to 4,900 projects in all 50 states and special jurisdictions.

Total Cost of Projects supported by NHPRC in Nevada:

- $1,497,356 - Total Project Funds
- $747,356 - Direct Federal Grants
- $750,000 - State and Local Contributions

Projects of Special Value to the State of Nevada:

The NHPRC has played a unique role in supporting historical RECORDS projects of special value to Nevada including:

- Documenting the history of the people of Nevada - projects to document women's history in the state through the University of Nevada, Reno; to develop a records management system, produce a program manual applicable to the 24 tribes of Nevada, provide assistance to tribes wishing to replicate the system, survey records of the Inter-Tribal Council of Nevada; to preserve the manuscript collections relating to the Lake Tahoe Region, 1865-1979 at the University of Nevada, Reno.
- State Archives Support – To support to survey local records relating to Nevada's territorial period; to support basic activities and a regrant program that will provide funding to museums, libraries, archives and other historical records repositories to digitize historical documents, create metadata, and make digital images available on their websites; and to survey the records of local courts in Nevada and create retention/disposition schedules for those records.

Nevada institutions that have received assistance from the NHPRC –

Nevada State Library and Archives

Supreme Court of Nevada

Nevada State Historical Records Advisory Board

University of Nevada, Reno

Reno-Sparks Indian Colony

Western Council of State Libraries

<http://www.archives.gov/nhprc/projects/states-territories/nv.html>