

IMPACT OF NHPRC IN NORTH DAKOTA

The National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC) promotes the preservation and use of America's documentary heritage essential to understanding our democracy, history, and culture. Since 1964, the NHPRC has awarded $207 million to 4,900 projects in all 50 states and special jurisdictions.

Total Cost of Projects supported by NHPRC in North Dakota:

- $1,357,128 - Total
- $681,128 - Direct Federal Grants
- $676,000 - State and Local Contributions

Projects of Special Value to the North Dakota:

The NHPRC has played a unique role in supporting historical RECORDS projects of special value to North Dakota including...

- Important Cultural & Historical Collections – support to establish or enhance archives at Fort Buford, cities and counties across the state, and the six television stations broadcasting across the state.
- State Archives – support for basic activities, statewide planning, and digitizing collections for Digital Horizons, the online database of historical records of North Dakota.

North Dakota institutions that have received assistance from the NHPRC:

- Barnes County Historical Society
- Bismarck State College Library Archives
- Cass County Historical Society
- Manfred Heritage Museum
- McLean County Historical Society
- Mercer County Historical Society
- North Dakota League of Cities
- North Dakota Association of Counties
- North Dakota State Historical Records Advisory Board
- Pembina County Historical Society
- Pioneer Trails Regional Museum
- State Historical Society of North Dakota
- Stutsman County Historical Society
- Three Affiliated Tribes Museum

<http://www.archives.gov/nhprc/projects/states-territories/nd.html>