#	Responses	Date
1	The workbook	4/15/2016 11:01 AM
2	As a beginner to digital archiving, the information was a bit overwhelming, but all helpful as I gain vocabulary and information to know where and from whom to find assistance.	4/7/2016 3:52 PM
3	Overall info and structure.	4/6/2016 8:28 AM
4	Demonstration of tools.	4/5/2016 2:48 PM
5	Demonstrations of how different tools can make access work.	4/4/2016 6:31 PM
6	Examples of work being done by other institutions to provide access to digital materials. Seeing the actual deliver methods / websites of institutions who are "leading the way" in this area certainly serve as examples for a concrete way forward.	4/4/2016 5:43 PM
7	I found the entire workshop valuable. I think it is appropriate to keep it a half day workshop as it stands right now.	4/4/2016 3:08 PM
8	I can't think of any.	4/4/2016 2:47 PM
9	Discussing the differences between Submission Agreement and Transfer documents, and Donor Agreements.	4/4/2016 11:36 AM
10	The discussion about redacting tools.	4/4/2016 11:27 AM
11	There was nothing new at all for me in this workshop.	4/4/2016 9:39 AM
12	The overview of tools and considerations.	4/1/2016 6:23 PM

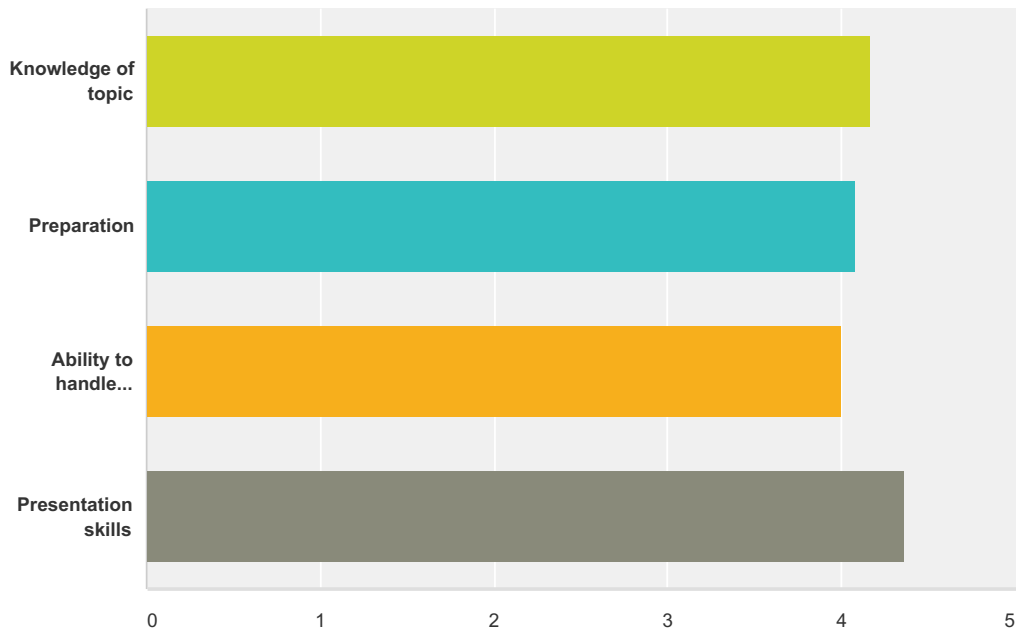

Q5 What aspect of the workshop methods/materials would you change? Why?

1	I would direct it toward the exam...don't be vague ask and answer the exact questions that will be on test. The way SAA questions are worded sometimes leaves room for interpretation so specifics help.	4/15/2016 11:01 AM
2	It was not helpful for the instructor to assume we all have programming skills. Though I do know where I can find assistance with this the answer to many issues was, 'well, you can write a script for that,' was not as helpful as a solution.	4/7/2016 3:52 PM
3	Would be nice to have some interactive hands-on experience/practice using various means to access born digital materials rather than simply seeing the instructor look at them.	4/6/2016 8:28 AM
4	Distribute the course packet electronically -- to save paper and shipping costs.	4/5/2016 2:48 PM
5	More in depth look at work flows.	4/4/2016 6:31 PM
6	Perhaps more examination of some of the specific tools and how they work. I tend to learn by hands on examples.	4/4/2016 5:43 PM
7	I have no suggestions at this time.	4/4/2016 3:08 PM
8	The content could be covered in a 90 minute session. The extra time could have been small group exploration and discussion of different access approaches being used today. Instead we sat watching instructor open one site after another and scrolling up and down and clicking through them - a bit unrehearsed. Sadly, it was a lost opportunity to talk one on one with other archivists.	4/4/2016 2:47 PM
9	I would have liked to see - and benefited from - more examples and possibly an instructor tutorial.	4/4/2016 11:36 AM
10	I would add more group discussion as I think in this particular instance there was a lot of knowledge in the room, certainly more than the instructor had, about the various tools. This is not to bash Erin, but I think a broader discussion could have uncovered a depth of knowledge that would have been helpful and educational.	4/4/2016 11:27 AM
11	This workshop was overly simplistic. The concepts introduced were so elementary I don't see them being of use to a working professional.	4/4/2016 9:39 AM
12	I liked it as it was. No changes recommended.	4/1/2016 6:23 PM

1	Good job	4/15/2016 11:01 AM
2	thank you!	4/5/2016 2:48 PM
3	I'm sure the course will continue to develop and improve as the instructor continues to teach it. She did an excellent job, particularly since it was her first time teaching this course.	4/4/2016 5:44 PM
4	Erin was a fantastic presenter. She was extremely knowledgeable and demonstrated a deep understanding of the topic covered. Also, she was secure enough in her expertise to admit when she didn't know something. Her level of expertise allowed her to handle a wide range of questions. She was great!	4/4/2016 3:09 PM
5	Please develop this course further. An improved version could prove to be useful to many archivists.	4/4/2016 2:49 PM
6	I feel like more preparation is in order. For instance, if you are going to cover a few major systems for providing access such as contentDM, dspace, etc, you should be knowledge about the features and the differences--especially major ones such as which are open-source and which are proprietary.	4/4/2016 9:42 AM
7	My only advice would be to be aware of your sighing!	4/1/2016 6:26 PM

2	Nothing comes to mind at this time, but would consider most cities in Oregon for continuing education.	4/7/2016 3:54 PM
3	Looking forward to A&D courses. I have funds to travel anywhere in the US	4/6/2016 8:28 AM
4	n/a	4/5/2016 2:49 PM
5	Portland or Salem, Oregon and surrounding areas.	4/4/2016 6:32 PM
6	All SAA workshops are fantastic and appreciated. Denver, Colorado Albuquerque or Santa Fe, New Mexico	4/4/2016 5:46 PM
7	I can't think of any at this time.	4/4/2016 3:10 PM
8	Don't know.	4/4/2016 2:50 PM
9	Seattle, Olympia, WA	4/4/2016 11:36 AM
10	I don't know the answer to this question right now.	4/4/2016 11:28 AM
11	If requiring additional classes in order to renew the DAS certificate, there has to be some more advanced classes created. Almost everything is an introduction for someone who has never encountered born-digital materials before.	4/4/2016 9:52 AM
12	none come to mind	4/1/2016 6:27 PM
