CPR will reflect on its responsibilities to and interests in SAA's strategic priorities of achieving greater diversity, harnessing technology, and developing effective advocacy. CPR's SAA council representative Tom Hyry will start the discussion with an overview of SAA's strategic priorities. Following this, the group will break into 3 groups to consider CPR's goals and interests in relation to advocacy, technology, and advocacy. Volunteer moderators will facilitate the group discussions.

Following the breakout session, the three groups will come back together and moderators will report in brief. The work of the three sections will form the basis for setting strategic priorities for CPR as it moves forward into its next 25 years
