

IMPACT OF NHPRC IN RHODE ISLAND

The National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC) promotes the preservation and use of America's documentary heritage essential to understanding our democracy, history, and culture. Since 1964, the NHPRC has awarded $207 million to 4,900 projects in all 50 states and special jurisdictions.

Total Cost of Projects supported by NHPRC in Rhode Island:

- $5,870,078 - Total
- $2,945,078 - Direct Federal Grants
- $2,925,000 - State and Local Contributions

Projects of Special Value to the Rhode Island:

The NHPRC has played a unique role in supporting historical RECORDS and PUBLICATIONS projects of special value to Rhode Island including...

- Establish Network of Archives in Rhode Island – support to establish or enhance archives at such institutions as Brown University, Rhode Island School of Design, Heritage Harbor Museum, Rhode Island Supreme Court, and Rhode Island College.
- State Archives – funding to help modernize the state archives, improve access to its holdings, and develop an electronic records program.
- Local records in Rhode Island – support to help organize, preserve, manage, and make accessible local records throughout the state, including the cities of Providence, Warwick, Jamestown, and New Shoreham.
- Documentary Editions – funding to publish the papers of Nathaniel Greene, Roger Williams, and Isaac Backus.
