Summary of Chapter Activities, 2022

Thursday, March 3, 2022 – the CUA SAA Student Chapter officers (Jessica Neuman - President and Treasurer, Julie Pramis - Vice President and Secretary) and Faculty Advisor (Jane Zhang) met online to discuss event planning for the Spring 2022 semester.

Thursday, March 31, 2022 - The CUA SAA Student Chapter hosted CUA LIS students with a guest lecture by Kathleen O’Neill, Senior Archives Specialist in the Manuscript Division at The Library of Congress, for a discussion on creating a workflow for the lifecycle of born-digital materials. The event was hosted on Zoom.

Tuesday, September 20, 2022 - The CUA SAA Student Chapter hosted CUA LIS students in LSC 646 Archives Management class guest lecture by Dominic Amaral, Archivist at the Marine Corps University History Division, for a discussion on the various career pathways one may take in becoming an archivist. His presentation covered transferable skills, advice on the application process, and insight on what hiring committees are looking for. Three people from outside the Archives Management class were in attendance. Both officers were in attendance. The class was held in person.

Friday, September 30, 2022 – The CUA SAA Student Chapter officer met to discuss event planning and allocation of duties for the fall 2022 semester. All officers (Julie Pramis – President, Jessica Neuman – Vice President, Ari Hilliard – Treasurer, Robin P Hutchinson Cole – Secretary) and Faculty Liaison (Mark Greek) were in attendance.

Wednesday, October 26, 2022 - The CUA SAA Student Chapter hosted CUA LIS students with a guest lecture by Ashley Todd-Diaz, Ph.D., Assistant University Librarian for Special Collections and University Archives at Towson University in Baltimore. An informative presentation showcasing the work she's done during and since remote work was required by the pandemic was followed by a Q&A session with attendees. All officers were in attendance except the secretary. The event was hosted on Zoom.

Friday, November 18th, 2022 - The CUA SAA Student Chapter partnered with AGLISS for a tour of the MLK Jr. Memorial Library and Archives with professor Mark Greek. Professor Greek is the Special Collections Coordinator at the D.C. library and archives, at which he gave a thorough tour of the four floors of the recently renovated building with an in-depth discussion of its history and community. The SAA chapter president was in attendance. This event was on-site at the MLK library.
