Recovering Diverse Voices: Women Inventors
Slow Change: Women Inventors on Patent Applications (shown as percentage (%) of all patent applications worldwide)

Women in Technology by the Numbers

The computing workforce in 2015

In 2015, 17% of CEOs were women.

25% were women:
- 15% were Asian women
- 10% were Latinx women
- 5% were Native women
- 5% were Black women

Women Represented:

57% of women leave the technology sector by the mid-level stage.

56% of women have their technology careers in the mid-level stage.

Women in tech have a higher job satisfaction score in their current role.

increase in number of bachelor's degree recipients who entered major in computer science between 2000 and 2015.

40% of tech companies and information sciences teacher's degrees employed have declined since 2010.

Join the leading afterschool programs with 37% of women!

Women's Salaries: $55K at the entry level, $107K at the mid-level, $145K at the senior level.

Women in Tech are 37% of all computer scientists.

Women in Tech are 17% of all technical professionals.
THANK YOU!

QUESTIONS?

Alison Oswald

oswalda@si.edu