

IMPACT OF NHPRC IN SOUTH DAKOTA

The National Historical Publications and Records Commission (NHPRC) promotes the preservation and use of America's documentary heritage essential to understanding our democracy, history, and culture. Since 1964, the NHPRC has awarded $207 million to 4,900 projects in all 50 states and special jurisdictions.

Total Cost of Projects supported by NHPRC in South Dakota:

- $1,126,486 - Total
- $563,568 - Direct Federal Grants
- $562,918 - State and Local Contributions

Projects of Special Value to the South Dakota:

The NHPRC has played a unique role in supporting historical RECORDS projects of special value to South Dakota including...

- Important Cultural & Historical Collections – support to establish or enhance archives at Sisseton Wahpeton Community College, the Oglala Lakota College in Kyle, South Dakota School of Mines, Sioux Falls College, Sinte Gleska College and the Rosebud Sioux Tribe.
- State Archives – support through the South Dakota Department of Tourism and State Development for basic activities, statewide planning, and small regrants programs.

South Dakota institutions that have received assistance from the NHPRC:

- Augusta College, Sioux Falls
- South Dakota Department of Tourism & State Development, Pierre
- Sisseton Wahpeton Community College, Sisseton
- Oglala Lakota College, Kyle
- South Dakota School of Mines and Technology, Rapid City
- Sinte Gleska College, Rosebud
- South Dakota Archives Research Center, Pierre
- Sioux Falls College, Sioux Falls
- South Dakota State Archives Resource Center, Pierre
- The Episcopal Church in South Dakota

<http://www.archives.gov/nhprc/projects/states-territories/sd.html>